Remembering our fallen brothers and sisters

Remembrance Day, November 11, 2008 is the 90th Anniversary of the symbolic end of World War I and is a day to commemorate the sacrifices of members of the armed forces and of civilians in times of war, specifically the First and Second World Wars. They gave their lives and their futures so that we may live in peace.

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
 Between the crosses, row on row,
 That mark our place: and in the sky
 The larks, still bravely singing, fly
 Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
 We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
 Loved and were loved, and now we lie
 In Flanders' fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
 To you from failing hands we throw
 The torch; be yours to hold it high,
 If ye break faith with us who die
 We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
 In Flanders' Fields.

John McCrae
